

SURVIVORS

“School counselors be ready. We had girls and young women come up to us afterwards to talk for the first time ever. They were empowered. They were alive with new hope. They understood for the first time that they were not alone, that it was not their fault, and that it was time to heal. There were tears. There was Truth. I saw victims who had lost faith in humanity transforming into survivors with new strength and purpose.”

BARB ORBAN, LAY COUNSELOR AND SPEAKER, MILWAUKEE ANTI-HUMAN TRAFFICKING TASK FORCE, EXPLOIT NO MORE.

